CPM994

A developed agro-tourism farm is a well-organized rural estate that combines modern agricultural practices with engaging visitor amenities. The landscape typically stretches across fertile fields, orchards, livestock areas, natural features and a Village demonstration.

At the entrance of this farm, guests are welcomed by a visitor reception centre that includes a big hosting area nicely covered to protect guests from harsh weather conditions and serve as a facility space to host weddings and conference gatherings. From here, well-marked pathways lead visitors to different thematic zones showing the village house, traditional nkgwana decors, wedding podium areas, braai and chill zones, cooking area, ablutions, staff housing and 4 bedroom managers office.
