Beautiful historical home located in Mokolodi Conservancy

KB5655

This historical home combines lifestyle and family living within a private nature reserve. The property stands proudly within the Mokolodi Conservancy and is the original Mokolodi Farmhouse. The location offers you tranquillity and magnificent views of nature; the home is set within a lush indigenous garden with plenty of trees. The house was first constructed in 1895 and has previously been owned by forefathers and visionaries of Botswana. Having been renovated and updated, the home still retains its traditional feel with large volumes, open flow throughout and plenty of space for entertaining or just to find a quiet nook for relaxing. There is a well-appointed 2 bedroomed cottage for guests or extended family and the barn can be converted for a home business or additional accommodation.
